Taproom & Events Manager

Description

Round Trip Brewing Company is seeking an experienced and enthusiastic Taproom & Events Manager to lead the daily operations of our West Midtown taproom, event space, and beer garden. This role is responsible for cultivating a welcoming, community-driven environment for guests while empowering and developing a high-performing taproom team. The Taproom & Events Manager ensures that our beer, brand, and hospitality standards are consistently and proudly represented.

This is a hands-on leadership position that blends hospitality operations, event sales, staff development, and cross-department collaboration.

Responsibilities

Taproom & Staff Leadership

- Plan, coordinate, and supervise taproom operations and staff schedules.
- Collaborate with the leadership team on recruitment, hiring, onboarding, performance management, and staff recognition.
- Coach, counsel, and provide constructive feedback to taproom staff to reinforce a strong hospitality mindset and authentic guest engagement.
- Lead by example by working shifts as needed and assisting with taproom operations, tours, and special events.
- Participate in regular staff meetings to share updates, train on new procedures and events, and gather team feedback.

Events Sales & Management

- Sell, book, and coordinate private events, a major component of taproom revenue.
- Respond promptly to event inquiries and proactively seek new event opportunities to increase bookings.
- Proactively reach out to potential new or returning clients to sell private events.
- Oversee event execution to ensure a positive guest experience and smooth operations.

Guest Experience & Community Building

- Foster a community-focused culture for both employees and guests.
- Interact with customers regularly to ensure an exceptional and welcoming experience.
- Design and implement strategies to increase taproom traffic and strengthen guest relationships.
- Schedule food vendors and coordinate with vendors as needed for events and taproom service

Beer Knowledge & Education

- Collaborate with the brewing team to lead regularly scheduled beer education sessions.
- Ensure taproom staff is well trained on Round Trip beers, including beer styles, ingredients, brewing processes, and brand stories.
